

CHEMISTRY

Design 5:

EFFUSION OF ALCOHOLS THROUGH THE PORES OF AN EGG SHELL

Investigate a parameter that may affect the effusion rate of alcohols through the pores of an eggshell.

NOTE: To add alcohol into an egg, make two holes on the egg, blow air inside to empty the content, add alcohol with a syringe, and close both holes using molten wax.